Mr. Mujeeb Khan (Academic Mentor)

Mujeeb Khan, is founder president and creative director of IDEA. Starting his theatre at age of 9, writing first play at the age 14 which is corrected by veteran writer and film actor Kader Khan who is also a teacher and stage guru of Mr Mujeeb Khan's early staged. He has also learned a lot from Shafi Inamdar, Shekhar Prohit and Shaikh Ahmed. At the age of 18 he wrote a play 'Lachare Mai' which was witnessed by a great writer of the era 'Ismat Chughtai', where she was a judge and asked Mr Khan his age. She could not believe that it is a work of an 18 years old boy and asked him to meet her regularly for moulding Mr. Khan for his new plays. Mr Mujeeb Khan is a great craftsman, he directs plays in his own style which is very unique and he always experiments on stage. In his early age he directed two plays in the same competition where Shoukat Kaifi was a judge and she admits that the competition was very easy but we could not decide for best director because two plays was directed by the same man and we tossed. Mr Khan Directed more then 800 one Act Plays and more then 10 full length plays.
